

Legal internship (m/f/d)

Assenagon is one of the fastest growing independent asset managers in Europe. The company specialises in the active management of capital market risks, and the provision of investment solutions for institutional investors and distribution partners. In particular, fund management focuses on the need of capital investors to generate income within predefined risk budgets.

Our company currently employs around 80 staff at its locations in Luxembourg, Munich, Frankfurt and Zurich. We regularly offer exciting internships for students, graduates and ambitious young professionals. Seize the opportunity to gain insights into a dynamic company and put your abilities to the test for at least ten weeks.

As part of your legal internship, you will gain an insight into the work of the legal department of an internationally active investment company and work closely together with other departments, e.g. securities trading, on transaction-related tasks. The internship should comprise at least three months!

Your responsibilities

- Helping to draw up and review national and international contracts
- Preparing legal statements in the areas of company, investment, tax and supervisory law
- Supporting the development of legal set-ups
- Researching national and international issues
- Cooperation in conducting requests and proceedings, e.g. with supervisory authorities

Your profile

- Successfully completed First State Exam in law. Possible focus on company, tax, European and/or securities law
- Strong interest in working in the financial sector
- Basic theoretical knowledge of business issues, preferably reinforced by previous internships
- Able to work independently and with clear goals, committed and with strong teamwork and communication skills
- Very good command of English
- Good knowledge of the standard MS Office applications
